

HOW-TO:

Cite a Newspaper article from a Website

Follow these step-by-step directions to cite your newspaper source:

1. SELECT THE CITATION TYPE

The screenshot shows the NoodleTools web application. At the top, there are navigation tabs for Projects, Dashboard, Bibliography, Notecards, and Paper. Below this is a header with the NoodleTools logo and a welcome message for Ms. Risi. The main content area is titled "MLA Works Cited". On the left, there is a "Cite a:" dropdown menu with a "Create Citation" button next to it. The dropdown menu is open, showing various citation types such as "Newspaper", "Book", "Database", etc. A red arrow points from the "Newspaper" option in the dropdown menu to the "1. SELECT THE CITATION TYPE" heading.

2. IDENTIFY ALL REQUIRED CITATION ELEMENTS – sometimes you have to look hard!

The screenshot shows a news article on the NorthJersey.com website. The URL is circled in red and labeled "URL". The website name "NorthJersey.com" is circled in red and labeled "Website name". The article title "Destructive emerald ash borer has landed in North Jersey and may be here for good" is circled in red and labeled "Article title". The publication date "OCTOBER 14, 2015, 6:11 PM" is circled in red and labeled "Publication date". The author "BY SCOTT FALLON" is circled in red and labeled "Author". The newspaper name "The Record" is circled in red and labeled "Newspaper name". The article features a photograph of a green emerald ash borer beetle on a tree trunk. To the right of the article is a large advertisement for Mahwah Sunoco, which includes a $100 Sunoco Gift Card offer and other services like oil changes and tire rotations.

3. COMPLETE THE CITATION WORKSHEET

Don't forget to click on the tab saying where you got your article!!!

Fill in fields on your NoodleTools worksheet.
